

WASHINGTON. D.C. – House Committee on Oversight and Government Reform Ranking Member Darrell Issa (R-CA) today announced subcommittee Ranking Members for the 111th Congress.

“President Obama’s repeated commitment to unprecedented transparency presents an historic opportunity to fix problems in the Federal Government that have festered through both Republican and Democratic administrations,” said Rep. Issa. “With the help and leadership of our subcommittee Ranking Members, Republicans will chart an aggressive course to investigate and fix problems identified by the Government Accountability Office, Inspectors General, and anyone with information about waste, fraud, and abuse.”

Oversight and Government Reform Committee Ranking Members for the 111th Congress:

Domestic Policy: Rep. Jim. Jordan (OH)

Federal Workforce, Postal Service, and the District of Columbia: Rep. Jason Chaffetz (UT)

Government Management, Organization, and Procurement: Rep. Brian Bilbray (CA)

Information Policy, Census, and National Archives: Rep. Patrick McHenry (NC)

National Security and Foreign Affairs: Rep. Jeff Flake (AZ)